Housing Authority of the City of Nahunta

Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Policy

(Adopted by the Board January 9, 2007)

The Housing Authority will promote and abide by the VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) that was signed by President Bush on January 5, 2006. The Housing Authority will support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault stalking and/or others as required by the law to prevent them from losing their HUD-assisted housing as a consequence of the abuse of which they were the victim. The Housing Authority will adhere to HUD requirements regarding the VAWA pertaining to Public Housing.

The Housing Authority will take action to protect the safety and welfare of all our residents when repeated offenses occur. In the event the victim being protected shows a willingness to continue relationships with such abusers, continues to have them as guests in their home and incidents continue to occur, the victim could be evicted in order to protect our other residents.

The Housing Authority maintains a working relationship with the Brantley County Sheriffs Department and the Department of Children and Families, and will join in any efforts by these departments to provide continuing education on domestic violence, dating violence and stalking to our residents.

In order to inform our residents and new applicants about the Housing Authority's commitment to providing a living environment free of domestic violence, dating violence and stalking, the HA provides a copy of the VAWA Policy at the time of application and/or renewal.
